Approximately 70% of non-Netflix users agree that they would switch to Netflix if the prices were lower.

72.6% of users value Netflix's diverse movie and show library, with 67.7% specifically appreciating exclusive original content.

48.4% of respondents (rating ≤3) are moderately or not satisfied with Netflix's subscription value, making them highly likely to churn if a better alternative emerges.

Amazon has a cheaper plan and also gives student discount aswell. On top of it I also get free shipping on my orders

I want more live cricket streaming and sports content. I also watch Indian soaps and reality shows, so rely on cable TV.

I use Netflix only on weekends, so a full subscription isn't worth it hence I prefer free content.

I prefer short-form videos and doom scrolling due to my short attention span. With limited time, I watch content only during breaks.

India's OTT Market scenario

1

In India, revenue in the OTT Video market is projected to reach US$4.49bn in 2025.

2

Revenue is expected to show CAGR (2025-2029) of 7.18%, resulting in a projected market volume of US$5.92bn by 2029.

3

India is primarily a mobile-first market for internet consumption, including OTT content

Short form video market oppotunities

The short-form video market is projected to grow from $34.79B (2024) to $289.52B (2032).

The average Indian user spends nearly two hours daily doom-scrolling, making up a large share of their social media usage.

Netflix can leverage the short-video trend to boost engagement and reach a wider audience.

Pricing & Affordability

Retention Rate

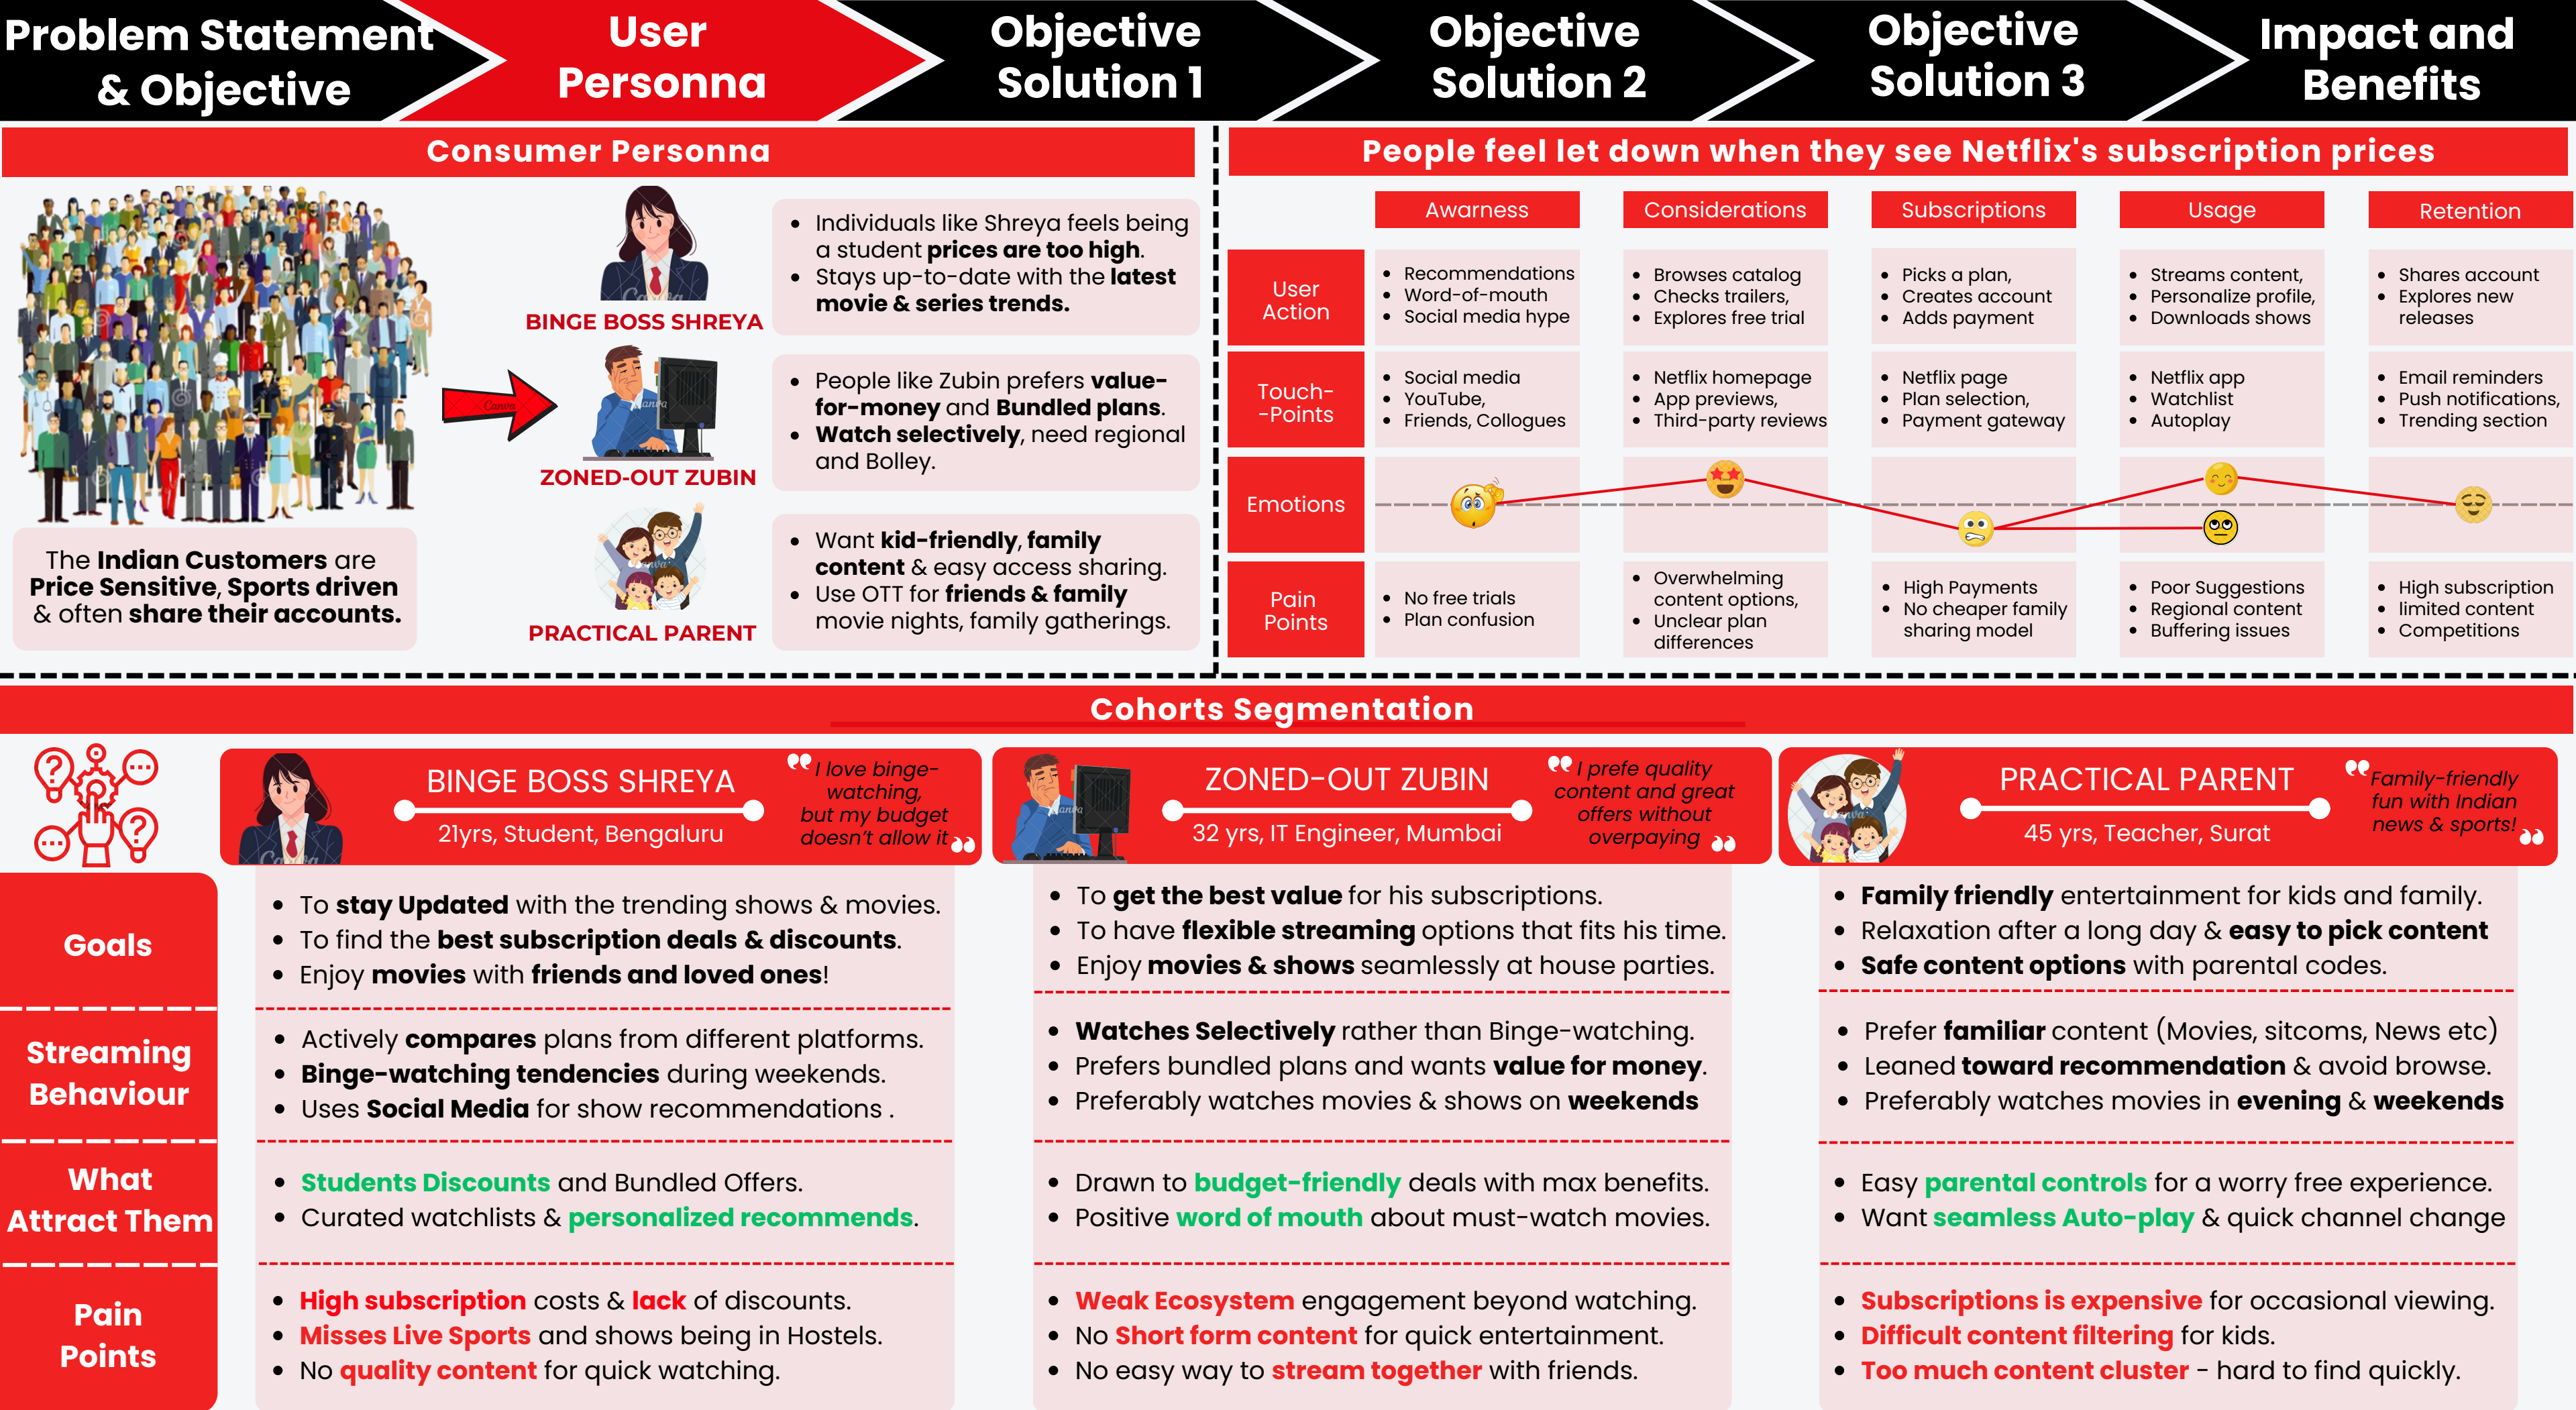

UI/UX Experience

Netflix is not a market leader in India but is strong in premium, urban segments.

Netflix dominates UI/UX & ARPU but struggles in affordability & retention.

Amazon offers best pricing & retention, but UI is weaker compared to Netflix.

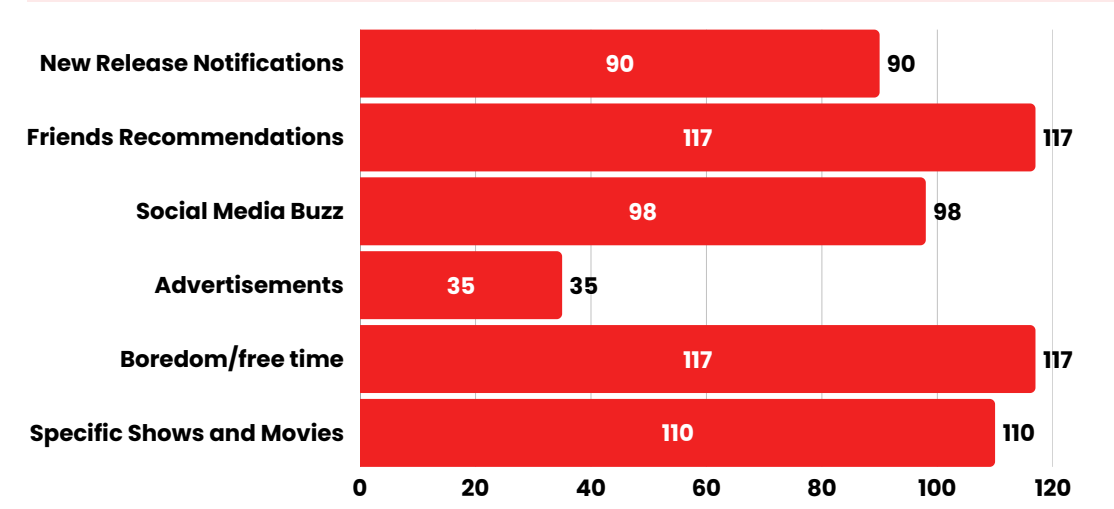

Disney+ Hotstar leads in User Base (thanks to IPL) but faces high churn post-events.

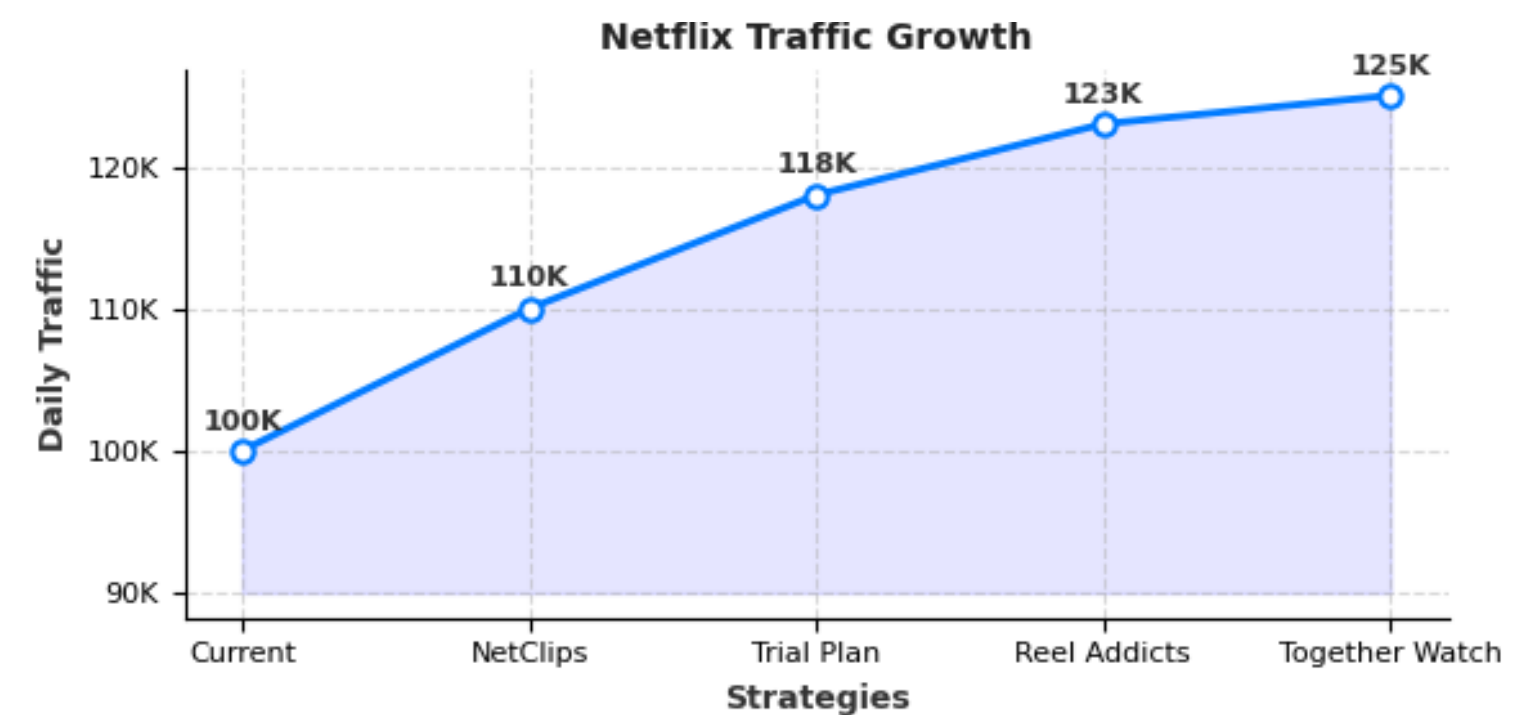

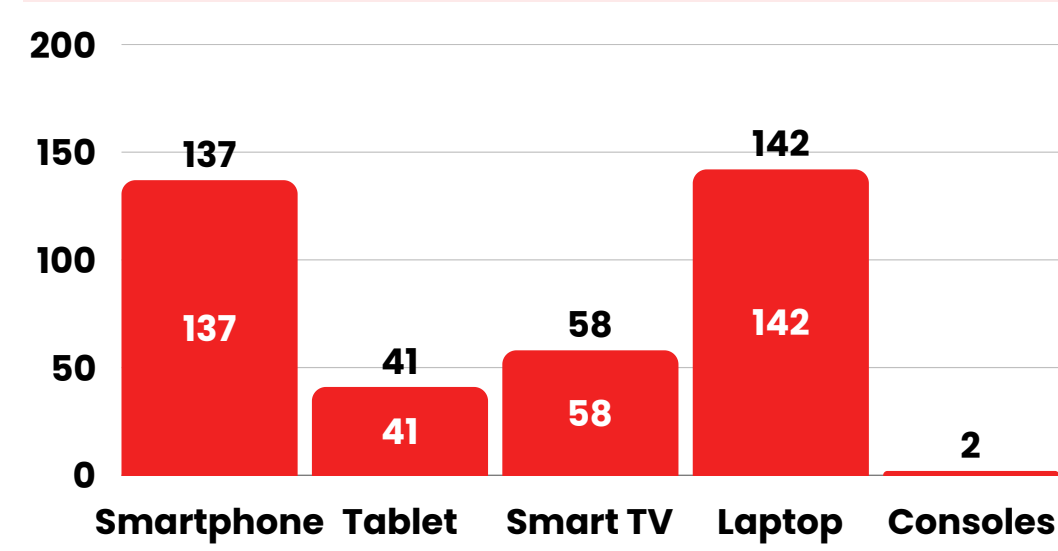

Daily Average Traffic is Low Because Users Prefer Quick Content & Lack Personalized Recommendations

Users engage more when notified about preferred shows especially during boredom.

Users prefer smartphones and laptops for quick and easy Netflix access
